

Dreaming Invisible Voices: Poetry

~~The God Abandons Antonyes,~~ to the exquisite music of that strange procession, and say goodbye to her, to the Alexandria you are losing

At midnight, when suddenly you hear an invisible procession going by with exquisite music, voices, don't mourn your luck that's failing now, work gone wrong, your plans all proving deceptive—don't mourn them uselessly:
as one long prepared, and full of courage, say goodbye to her, to Alexandria who is leaving.

Above all, don't fool yourself, don't say it was a dream, your ears deceived you: don't degrade yourself with empty hopes like these.
As one long prepared, and full of courage, as is right for you who were given this kind of city, go firmly to the window and listen with deep emotion, but not with the whining, the pleas of a coward;

Gaius Valerius Catullus
